and overseeing the claims reconciliation and objection process, which involves the collective effort of myself; my counsel, including ASK LLP; my financial advisor, Grant Thornton LLP; and certain former employees of the Reorganized Debtors (collectively, the “Reviewing Parties”). In connection with my responsibilities, I am generally familiar with the Debtors’ books and records that reflect, among other things, the Debtors’ liabilities and the amount thereof owed to their creditors both as of and subsequent to the Petition Date.

3. I have read the Plan Administrator’s Objection to Claim Asserted by Kyle Wenzel (Claim No. 10021) (the “Objection”).

4. To the best of my knowledge, information, and belief, the assertions made in the Objection are accurate. In evaluating proof of claim 10021 filed by claimant Kyle Wenzel (the “Proof of Claim” and “Claimant”, respectively), I, in a collective effort with one or more of the Reviewing Parties under my supervision, thoroughly reviewed the Proof of Claim, the claims register, the Debtors’ books and records, and the supporting information provided by Claimant. Based on this review, and upon consultation with the Reviewing Parties, I have determined that the information provided with the Proof of Claim, coupled with the information in the Debtors’ books and records, demonstrates that no money is owed to Claimant. According to the documentation accompanying the Proof of Claim, Claimant asserts a claim for unpaid bonus compensation allegedly owed under a 2021 Bonus Program. However, the determination of compensation under the Bonus Program was completely dependent upon the completion of 2021 audited financial statements. Based on my review of the Debtors’ books and records, no 2021 audited financial statements were ever prepared. Although the Bonus Program provided for an initial bonus payment to Claimant based on estimated financial figures, which Claimant did in fact receive, eligibility for and calculation of the final payment was contingent upon receiving 2021 audited financial statements. Without audited financials, there is no basis for determining the amount owed to Claimant, if in fact Claimant qualifies for any bonus at all.

5. Based on the foregoing, and in consultation with the Reviewing Parties, I believe that the Claim should be disallowed and expunged in its entirety.

6. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury that the facts set forth in the foregoing declaration are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief as of the date hereof.
